

East Meets West Gallery

The East Meets West Gallery is proud to present for the first time at the Central House of Artists works by Olga Pluzhnikova-Orlova and Gennady Troshkov at the joint exhibition "Useless Beauty" by selected Moscow galleries..

Olga Pluzhnikova-Orlova and Gennady Troshkov represent two opposite artist's vision and understanding what does beauty mean.

She examines the reality through the light mist, trying to soften the "abomination of life", the scope of its hard lines and boundaries.

He created the world full of Technologism and rigid structures out of his imagination. For the audience these forms and structures lose touch with real images, but eventually they got all the signs of real Beauty. And who at the end decides is Beauty useless or not? - It's audience.

In easel Olga Pluzhnikova-Orlova affected last years of her artistic quest and expanding horizons made possible as a result of traveling and studying in different European schools picturesque Germany and France. В станковых работах Ольги Плужниковой–Орловой отразились последние годы ее художественных исканий и расширение горизонтов, которые стали возможными в результате путешествий и учебы в разных европейских живописных школах Германии и Франции.

Graphic works Gennady Troshkova to the same extent as his easel painting marked an unusual way of thinking of the author. His unique images and designs with their own special technological structure sometimes resemble familiar figurative images, but often lose touch with them and live their lives fantastic.
